A Hanukkah Reflection

My salvation's stronghold, fort, praising You is such delight.
 Build your House of Prayer, Lord, cleansed from idols after fight.
 You came to our assistance when we gave resistance.
 Then we sang a hymn of thanks for your aid's persistence

Ionian, Hellenist and Greek did defile our holy place.
 God did aid the faithful meek who gave the enemy the chase.
 Then they found new meaning when they found in cleaning.
 In their toil some pure oil, Hanukkah's beginning.

A heartfelt thank you to the maintenance and housekeeping staff, as well as the paraprofessionals, teachers, and related service providers who supported the students throughout rehearsals and the performance. Your contributions made this event truly memorable!

Thank You for Joining Us!

We are grateful for your support and hope you had a wonderful time at the concert.

Wishing you a joyful holiday season from all of us at
The Maryland School for the Blind!
